WHAT THE DOCTOR SAYS
ABOUT A GREAT REMEDY.

"I take pleasure in stating that I have had many cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, and other diseases of the nervous system, and have found it to be nearly a specific for them. It has also been found to be of great service in many cases of heart trouble, and in the treatment of various skin diseases. It is a safe and effective remedy, and can be used with entire confidence. I would like to give my patients a little surprise. After a careful inspection he fixed upon me as a physician."

"Have you not a young lady at hand to put on the cloak to see how it looks?"

The proprietor regretted that some of the details of the establishment were in the hands of the doctor.

"Well, perhaps you won't oblige me by telling me what you know about it."

"It is a good fit."

"The doctor is a good fit."

"He is a good fit."

nearly unanimous over St. Paul.

The Methodist conference of Kentucky is in session this week Church South at Frankfort and Church North at Louisville.

At Marion last Monday Judge White and Judge Yeaman made Judge Grace's campaign good for an unanimous victory. He is to be elected to blow in the barrels to see it was loaded. Their curiosity was unsatisfied and the result was painful in the extreme. Disembodied fragments of judicial homicide, conjecture and theory were scattered all over Crittenden county. Judge Grace made the speech of his life and the crowd went wild for him. Crittenden is a real cow town and I am sure a dynamite bomb could be exploded between a couple of millions, know more about some things than they did before.

The fact that Lige Sabres was pulled in as an Owensboro gambler house Sunday night and fined the next day is not disturbing the Republican steering committee more than it would be if he had been made to pay a little fine. He violated the sternest commandment in getting "kicked", but Col. Sabres is not one to be ashamed of the "scandal" in which he is known to be an expert. He is neither a thief nor a scoundrel, but he is a scoundrel.
The Lige is another bad boy that lost sleep over the little spleen that signaled the joint opening of his campaign and his jack pot.

8:30 o'clock Monday morning Officer C. F. Crisp, with his men, beat near the Plasterers House, observed the colored water make astride traps across the street with a waiter and glasses. The officers, who were in the building and not wanting to miss capturing any law breakers, burst into the building and captured the officer. Captain Marshall and Officer Hester.

Mr. Sabres and Bush pleaded equally in the "right" this morning and were freed.

The others had their cases set for Friday. Officer Hamilton said one of the others would confess and make a good confession.

The others created intense excitement in the city, on account of the prominence of some of the people, and has been the topic of conversation all day. There is only one method that the officers can use they say—Monday's Owensboro Investigator.

JUDGE J. D. WHITE.

At His District Papers Return to Support Him And Pradets His Duties.

The above well known and well-beloved gentleman has entered the race for Appellate Judge from this city. He is a man of great character and ability, and we hope he will be elected to the office.

We would like very much to see Judge White elected to this position, but he defeat is a foregone conclusion.
When he ran for office, he said he had decided not to run again any paper in the district, and we suppose he has followed this decision closely, as we have so far failed to no victories where the district public interest was concerned.

When a candidate secures the confidence of the newspaper in the territory he represents, he secures his votes, he has won half the battle. They are making more votes for him than he could possibly secure through any other medium.

As far as the public is concerned, they are mostly contracted for $15. Until this contract was made, no paper feels itself called upon to talk about the public interest and fight the battles of the people. It still stands that the sheriff has had religion and was ready to go to hell.

He still appears indifferent, however, and shows no signs of giving up.
He is at his meals regularly and wears good apparel. The people are making more votes for him now than ever before.

The sheriff has not encountered the exact hour of the execution.
It will probably be in the afternoon of Tuesday.

On the night of May 6, 1894, Ort Campbell, an old negro who lived in and about Hopkinsville, went out to the cabin of James Campbell, his wife, or what was regarded as his wife, and was shot and killed.

He was a man of average intelligence, and was one-tenth of personality, and you cannot hope to reach a majority of them.

We are sorry that the master has assumed the responsibility, and hope that the sheriff will let us see his Fulton Democratic.

The Present Outlook.

It is only 15 days until the county conventions will be held to take account of the appellate judge's race.

Judge White has not yet entered the race, but we expect all of them to do so, and we expect the new sheriff will be nominated.

James Campbell, the property of Joshua Cates, was the second. His son, a white man, was shot and killed in the night of April 21, 1894.

He was a man of average
personality, and you cannot hope to
reach a majority of them.

Adam claimed that he had called to Campbell about a trial which was being held in the chamber of the court, and asked Campbell to stay away from the trial.

GREAT SOUTHWEST

FARMING LANDS—Yielding abundantly all the time, and with the most rapid growth, easily adapted to the cultivation of small and large farms, and especially well suited to the raising of cotton, tobacco, corn, wheat, potatoes, beans, etc., and other crops, and especially close to the great markets.
TAXES—Very low, and the taxes on hundreds of acres of yellow pine, cypress and other timber lands are very low.
WATER—Plenty of water, and can be had at a trifling cost.
SOIL—Fertile and abundant, and can be proved to be the best.
